Cabin Rate Information

Daily Rate is 1/4 the weekly charge. Cabin rates are based on a base rate fee plus amenities. Refundable key, fire extinguisher, or smoke detector charges may be assessed upon registration at the park.

Base rate fees include: electricity, access to public toilet, access to running water, stove and refrigerator.

Amenities include: open or screened porch, separate living area, woodstove or fireplace, propane or electric heat, water in cabin, toilet in cabin, shower in cabin, more than one bedroom, prime condition (rehabilitated or refurbished within past five years), and prime location (popular because of seclusion, close proximity to park amenities or extraordinary view).

Out of state resident fees apply for all cabins and cottages (except at Sebago Cabins) - $25/week or $6.25/night.

Access Pass: Base fee will be fully refunded, less a $9.00 refund processing fee. The Access Pass excludes fees for amenities as well as fees for booking, changing and canceling a reservation. Access pass is not accepted for cabins or cottage rentals in the Palisades Region.

† Rustic Cabins: These new cabins are 1 room only with no electric, refrigerator or stove. Access Pass is not accepted for rustic cabin rentals. Double & bunk bed configurations for 4 or 6 people.

†† Cottage Rentals

Basic price usually includes all the luxuries of home, such as linens, kitchen utensils, refrigerator and oven, etc. Contact the park to see what is included, necessary and allowed. The Access pass is not accepted for Cottage Rentals. A refundable security deposit is usually required upon arrival at park and most cottage rentals do not allow pets.

So You Want To Go Hiking!

You are in one of our beautiful New York State parks and you have decided to set out on a hiking adventure. There are a couple of things to make sure of before you begin your journey.

Know your limits

Do some homework and pick a trail that is suited to your skills and level of fitness. We all think we can climb Mount Marcy, but most likely we will enjoy a nice leisurely stroll around lakes and streams. Maps are available at many park offices or trailhead interpretive board. Pick a distance that you are comfortable with.

Know the trail

The map will highlight information such as trail length and degree of difficulty. Some will also highlight points of interest and supply a brief history of the area. The map will prove important if you lose your way. (Breadcrumb trails have not proved successful in the past!)

Wear the proper gear

Hiking boots that fit properly and appropriate clothing are essential. Always prepare for the worst possible weather. If you're carrying a pack, make sure it fits properly and is comfortable. In your daypack, you should have the following: at least two quarts of water, snacks (bring enough for a full day of hiking), first aid kit, pocketknife, flashlight, whistle, compass, sunscreen, extra clothing, an emergency space blanket and a fire-starting kit. Be aware of local weather forecasts.

Let someone know...

where you are going: Always leave your itinerary with a friend stating where you will be hiking and when you plan to return. In case you get lost or are injured, they will know where to begin looking for you.

CAMPER ALERT: DON'T MOVE FIREWOOD!

A new regulation is now in effect that prohibits moving untreated firewood more than 50 miles from its source. The regulation also bans importing firewood into New York unless it has been kiln-dried to kill invasive insects.

You can help protect our forests and campgrounds from tree-killing insects and diseases:

- Leave firewood at home - do not bring wood from home to campgrounds or parks.
- Only use firewood from local sources, or wood that has been heat-treated to kill pests.
- Burn ALL your wood before leaving your campsite.

NEW YORK State Camping/Cabin Reservation System

INFORMATION

The Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) operates all State campgrounds within the Adirondack and Catskill Forest Preserves. The Office of Parks, Recreation & Historic Preservation (OPRHP) operates all other camping areas and cabins in New York's state parks. Through the New York State Camping/Cabin Reservation System, you may reserve space, which will guarantee accommodations at any state camping area. Services, programs and facilities vary among campgrounds. Contact the park for current schedules. While reservations are not required, they are highly recommended. You can also rent any available campsite or cabin as a "walkup" on a first-come, first-serve basis when you arrive ready to camp.

Fees, policies and Call Center hours are subject to change at any time.

45223.indd 101 1/7/13 10:39 AM

Age Limitation: Persons under 18 years of age (21 at some parks) must be accompanied and supervised by a person 18 years of age or older (21 at some parks) who has been issued a permit for that campsite or cabin. The permit holder must be in residence throughout the permit period.

Quiet hours: Strictly enforced 10pm-7am. Persons not listed on the permit are not allowed on the campsite during these hours.

Generator use allowable hours: OPRHP facilities: 9am-11am, 5pm-9pm; DEC facilities 9am-11am, 4pm-7pm. If the use of a generator is deemed unreasonably loud by the facility staff, an individual's use of the generator may be limited and/or prohibited.

Pets: Domestic household pets are permitted in many state campsites, provided local rules and regulations are followed. Campgrounds require dogs to be on leashes no longer than 6 feet and under control. A maximum of two pets are permitted per site at all OPRHP facilities. Some facilities have other specific leash or cage rules. No dogs are permitted on the Lake George Islands Public Campgrounds, the Waltonian Group out of Roger's Rock or DEC day-use areas. No pets are permitted in the Long Island or Palisades camping areas or in cabins in the Genesee Region. Where pets are allowed, proof of rabies inoculation is required. Veterinarian's certificate of inoculation constitutes such proof. Because policies may vary between campsites, it is advised that you contact the campground beforehand and ask for specific requirements regarding rules, regulations and proof of rabies inoculations.

Alcoholic Beverages: While alcoholic beverages are allowed in most NYS campgrounds, it is the responsibility of each camping party to comply with all laws and regulations. Stony Brook and Wildwood State Parks and Beaver Pond Campground do not allow alcoholic beverages.

EVERYBODY LOVES

A CLEAN CAMPGROUND!

Whether you are primitive camping or RVing, a little effort and consideration for others is all that is needed to ensure that the next camper will enjoy their experience as much as you did.

LEAVE NO TRACE It's all about respect, for the environment and for others. If campers would just leave their campsites clean the way they found them, or a little better, then we will all be doing our share to promote safe, clean camping.

CARRY IN CARRY OUT Your mom is not there to pick up after you, so, if you take it in with you, take it out as well. If you are a backcountry camper, this is particularly important because there are no dumpsters in the backcountry.

GRAY WATER Would you drink the dirty dish water that you just washed your pans in? Not even on a dare! So why should anyone else have to? Be sure to dump gray water away from any fresh water sources and use biodegradable soap.

ASHES FROM THE GRILL Please don't dump your ashes on the ground. Either dump them in the campfire ring, or dump them in a bag and put the bag in the campground dumpster. Remember, only you can prevent forest fires!

LAUNDRIES, RESTROOMS AND SHOWERS Everyone likes a clean restroom. To guarantee this, please just clean up after yourself. If you are in the backwoods, take appropriate measures to cover human waste. Simple measures will provide great pleasures!

FISH CLEANING STATIONS Think of them as a place where you can show your friends that the big one did not get away. They are safe and prevent fish eyes from rolling around the campground.

DUMPSTERS Be sure to take along some plastic garbage bags to collect trash. The last thing you should do before leaving the campground is to make one more round and pick up any trash and put it in the dumpster. Please make sure the dumpsters are closed so that bears and raccoons cannot rummage through them.

Above all, remember: WE ALL BENEFIT WHEN NO ONE KNOWS WE WERE THERE.
