Public Boat Launches New York State Erie Canal

Completed in 1825, the Erie Canal took 7 years to build and was the only trade route west of the Appalachians at the time. Today, the Erie Canal is used mostly for boating, fishing and other pastimes. This brochure describes 10 public boat launch sites offered on the Erie Canal in Orleans, Monroe and Wayne Counties. Fish species present include northern pike, walleye, chain pickerel, largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, bowfin, carp, and panfish including rock bass, yellow perch, pumpkinseed, bluegill, black crappie and bullhead.
