

The Penn-Can property is the likely source area for the DNAPL. Historic facilities were present on the Penn-Can site that can be associated with the DNAPL. It is at a higher elevation and hydraulically upgradient from Wastebed B and the CSX areas. In this source area, the DNAPL is present in the fill (Solvay Waste) and the marl.

LEGEND

-  APPROXIMATE EXTENT OF DNAPL IN FILL
-  APPROXIMATE EXTENT OF DNAPL IN MARL

FIGURE 2

WASTEBED B/HARBOR BROOK
GEDDES AND SYRACUSE, NEW YORK

DISTRIBUTION OF DNAPL IN FILL AND MARL

