1. The Department has jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to the protection of the water quality of the State pursuant to ECL Article 17.
2. Respondent, City of Rensselaer, 62 Washington Avenue, Rensselaer, New York owns the Rensselaer City Boat Launch, located on the Hudson River ("site").
3. On May 30, 2008, Department staff conducted an inspection at the site and observed that Respondent had poured two concrete bases for a floating dock. Respondent did not have a permit to do this work. Respondent has removed the concrete bases.
4. ECL 17-0501 provides that "it shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to throw, drain, run or otherwise discharge into such waters organic or inorganic matter that shall cause or contribute to a condition in contravention of the standards adopted by the department..."
5. Respondent's construction activities at the site, which resulted in a concrete overflow into the Hudson river, are a violation of ECL 17-0501.
6. ECL § 71-1929 provides that any person who violates any provision of Titles 1 through 11 inclusive and title 19 of Article 17 of the ECL or any rule or regulation, order or determination of the Commissioner promulgated thereunder shall be liable for a civil penalty of up to thirty seven thousand five dollars ($37,500). Injunctive relief is also available.

In the event that Respondent fails to comply with the requirements of this Order the entire suspended portion of the penalty shall become due and payable upon written notice to Respondent without prejudicing the Department from seeking further appropriate penalties for violations of this Order by Respondent.

II. The provisions of this Order shall be deemed to bind Respondent, their agents, employees, and all persons, firms, corporations acting under or for them.

III. The terms of this Order shall not be construed to prohibit the Commissioner or his duly authorized representative from exercising any summary abatement powers, either at common law or as granted pursuant to statute or regulation.

IV. Respondent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Department, the State of New York, and their representatives and employees for all claims, suits, actions, damages and costs of every name and description arising out of or resulting from the fulfillment or attempted fulfillment of the provisions hereof by Respondent, their directors, officers, employees, servants, agents, successors or assigns.
