The trail traverses 5.9 miles between trailheads and is also open to mountain biking. This picturesque pond provides great views of the surrounding mountain ranges, a lean-to on its shore and a healthy self-sustaining native brook trout population. Sections of the trail are steep and eroded which may prove difficult for some users.

Please respect private property. Stay on designated trails
Practice Leave No Trace Principles
Emergency contact 518-891-0235