Dam Safety Emergency Action Plan (“EAP”) Requirement of Services of Professional Engineer (“PE”) - Waiver Application Form -

6 NYCRR Part 673.7(d) requires that Owners of Class C - High Hazard dams have a professional engineer (PE) prepare their Emergency Action Plan (EAP). The owner is also allowed to make a written request of the Director of the Division of Water in the Department’s Albany office to waive this PE requirement, with respect to some or all of the EAP, based on the Department’s discretionary consideration of public safety and the site specific characteristics of the dam and its location. This form serves as the waiver application form.

Below are listed the typical components of an EAP. The minimum requirements of an EAP are set forth in the Department’s dam safety regulations (at 6 NYCRR §673) and in the Department’s guidance documents. Both the regulations and the guidance documents are available on the Department’s website at www.dec.state.ny.us. The dam owner should be fully familiar with these provisions before deciding whether to complete and submit this Waiver Application Form.

Pursuant to 6 NYCRR §673.7(d), all of the components of the EAP for a Class “C” (high hazard) dam must be prepared by a PE unless the owner submits this Waiver Application Form and the application is thereafter approved in writing by the Department.

Please identify below with one or more checkmarks the component(s) of the EAP you want to prepare yourself (without the services of a PE).
